APPENDIX A

VIRGINIA:

In the Supreme Court of Appeals held at the Supreme Court of Appeals Building in the City of Richmond on Tuesday the 7th day of March, 1967.

The petition of Charles Edward Ross for a writ of error and supersedeas to a judgment rendered by the Circuit Court of Louisa County on the 19th day of July, 1966, in a prosecution by the Commonwealth against the said petitioner for a felony, having been maturely considered and a transcript of the record of the judgment aforesaid seen and inspected, the court being of opinion that the said judgment is plainly right, doth reject said petition and refuse said writ of error and supersedeas, the effect of which is to affirm the judgment of the said circuit court.

And it is ordered that the Commonwealth recover of the plaintiff in error the costs to be assessed in this case by the clerk of the said circuit court.

APPENDIX B

VIRGINIA:

Before John W. Eggleston, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, on Friday, the 17th day of March, 1967, in vacation of said Court.

Record No. R-7461

Charles Edward Ross,
Plaintiff in error,

against

Commonwealth of Virginia,
Defendant in error.

ORDER STAYING EXECUTION OF JUDGMENT

Upon consideration of the application of the plaintiff in error, by counsel, praying for a stay of execution of the judgment entered herein on March 7, 1967, in order that he may have reasonable time and opportunity to present to the Supreme Court of the United States a petition for a writ of certiorari to review the judgment of this court, it is now ordered that the execution and enforcement of the judgment of this court in the above-styled case entered on March 7, 1967, be, and the same is hereby, stayed, until the 5th day of June, 1967, on the expiration of which time the same may be enforced unless the case has been before that time docketed in the Supreme Court of the United States, in which event enforcement thereof shall be stayed until the final determination of the case by that court.

The above stay, however, is not to discharge the petitioner from custody, if in custody, or to release his bond if out on bail.
